Three acts.

Three stories.

One weekend only.

OCTOBER 29-30, 2016

BAKKEN ELEMENTARY AUDITORIUM | WILLISTON, ND

Welcome to year three...

... who would've thought that a dinner conversation would result in an event that has become a mainstay of our studio and the community? In 2013 we debuted our first installment of Halloween Alive!, focused on a sleepover where classic Halloween stories were brought to life. The following year, "Shipwrecked" hit the stage, following the pirates aboard the K.M. Lee on their journey at Black Rose Island.

This year, we are excited to bring the third installment of Halloween Alive!, simply entitled "III." Looking to set the bar even higher, we have changed the format of our show from two acts to three acts. Our first two shows starred our Competition Company; this year, we have opened up this show to the entire studio to provide further performing opportunities for our students. Each act takes the audience through an artistic rendition of familiar characters and storylines; some are more frightful than others. As always with each installment, even though the storyline and routines may vary, what will always remain is a commitment to high quality Halloween entertainment that people of all ages can enjoy.

We would like to thank Daycom Inc. for capturing this on video, Megan Wold for photographing this event, Kellie Rochelle Photography for providing our headshots, GAS Marketing for assisting with the script, C Cups Espresso for providing some delicious beverages, our KML Family members for helping run this show, our amazing sponsors: Enywhewy Services, LLC, Don & Kathy Loomer, & lastly, our countless supporters (i.e. YOU!) who continue to join us on our various endeavors.

WITHOUT ANY FURTHER ADD, LET'S BRING HALLOWEEN TO LIFE
... AGAIN!

Halloween Alive! 2016: "III"

ACT I: GHOSTS & WITCHES GALORE

Downtown Williston on Halloween Night and the KML Warehouse

The night begins as we see a variety of classic Halloween characters dancing around downtown Williston on Halloween Night. They are beginning their annual preparations for what will be a memorable night.

- Paint it Black ... Halloween Black.....Whole Cast

After our Cats and Witches begin dancing downtown, they notice they are not alone. Something is lurking in the darkness... but what could it be? The evil Skeletons came back to set the tone of how the evening is going to go... be aware ... skeletons .. are everywhere.

- Here Come the Skeletons.....Skeletons

The Black Cats cannot believe what they just encountered! They are so frightened! They want everyone to dance confidently into the darkness like them! Doesn't everybody want to be a cat? Meow!

- Everybody Wants to be a CatBlack Cats

The Witches are so proud of their Black Cats. They conquered their fears and danced confidently into the darkness. The cats are having a great time and the witches want everyone to have an even better time on Halloween night ... but with a twist ...

- I Put a Spell on You.....Witches

The Witches and Black Cats stir the pot to create the Evil Ghosts that will come to life. After being created, these Ghosts want revenge and bring terror to Williston, but are held in the KML Warehouse, controlled by the KML Ghostbusters.

- Ghost Brew.....Witches & Black Cats

The Evil Ghosts have come to life thanks to the Witches and the Black Cats. The Spirits are determined to wreak havoc on downtown Williston ... nothing will get in their way of getting what they want ... or so they think.

- Ghost Dance.....Evil Ghosts

5 MINUTE INTERMISSION

Halloween Alive! 2016: "III"

ACT II: GHOSTBUSTERS

KML Warehouse

The Ghostbusters are trying to protect the city of Williston by keeping the Evil Ghosts at bay in the KML Warehouse. They receive little help from the police, but not enough help to control the Evil Ghosts for long. Our heroes are on their own to control all of the ghosts, including some young, potentially friendly ghosts.

- "Ghostbuster Duet"Tori Tanner and Jurni Holte

The Ghostbusters believe they have conquered the Evil Ghosts! Everyone can rest peacefully. But wait... where are the ghosts? And whose side are the police on anyway? It's as though the police are playing nice with the Evil Ghosts!

- "Ghostbusters".....Ghostbusters, Evil Ghosts, Police

We find our Police Officers very impressed with how they had "helped" the Ghostbusters control the Evil Ghosts. The Police could not believe their eyes and ears when they encountered the Evil Ghosts earlier this evening. The Evil Ghosts are just spirits. They can't do too much harm, can they?

- "Police Dance"Police

The big, Evil Ghosts are not the only frightful ghosts that are lurking around the city of Williston tonight. Our Younger Ghosts want to get in on the fun of spooking everyone too! Even though they are small ... and scary looking to the eye ... they simply want to be your friend on this Halloween night. Yet everyone misunderstands them ... why do you think that is?

- "Casper the Friendly Ghost"..... Young Ghosts

The Young Ghosts are so upset that they cannot leave the KML Warehouse. The Ghosts' emotions have stirred up an evilness that was lurking in the air outside the KML Warehouse. The evilness took form as a Green Glob that was forming in the sky. The Green Glob convinced people and creatures of all kinds to join forces on this Halloween Night to let the ghosts out and rule the city of Williston.

- "Glob Stomp"Green Glob

Everyone in sight seems to be controlled by the evil Green Glob! Creatures and people of all kinds are coming together for a common goal - to dance as the monsters do.

- "Monster Mash"Ghostbusters, Evil Ghosts, Young Ghosts, Police

Halloween Alive! 2016: "III"

ACT III: FRANKENSTEIN

Dr. Frankenstein's Laboratory

As time continues through the dark night, we hear sounds coming out of the KML Studio. Victor Frankenstein is busy creating a creature put together by other body parts he has found laying around in the dark, eerie allies of Williston. He wants this creature to come to life - but does not want to be disturbed. He has sent out his favorite black creatures to protect the building while he puts the finishing touches on his creation. Audience, be sure to look over your shoulder, you never know what will fly by you. Keep your eyes open, they might be lurking right in front of you, or behind you.

- "Bats Take Flight"Bats

Realizing he is missing some final touches to his creation, Victor sends out his assistants to find the missing pieces they had left behind. Now that Victor is alone, he has come to realize he needs to invite his assistants to join the family business to continue on his legacy for years to come.

- "Frankenstein's Lament" Victor

The assistants return back to the KML Studio to bring back the missing pieces they had left in the alley for Dr. Frankenstein. They believe he will be so pleased with what they had brought for his creature. Wait until you see what they had found to put with the creation.

- "Scientists of Frankenstein" Victor & his Assistants

Victor Frankenstein has created his masterpiece and cannot believe his eyes! He is so proud of his creation and could not have done it alone. He and his team are intrigued ... and frightened. The creature is scarier than expected!

- "Monsters Become Alive" Victor's Monsters

Angered, The Monsters do not want to roam the city of Williston alone. They want a mate, a companion. They demand Victor Frankenstein and his crew to make them a female mate ... and fast. Thankfully, the team whipped up a few "brides" for them. Unfortunately, they are going to have to fight over the brides ...

- "Brides of Frankenstein" Brides

Now that The Monsters and their Brides are "alive" and together, they want to enjoy the rest of the night of Halloween. The time is closing in on midnight. The creatures hustle to make it to the Little Shop of Horror Dance in time before it comes to a close. When they arrive... they are welcomed by so many people and creatures that they know. What a wonderful way to end Halloween night!

- "Little Shop of Horrors" Entire Act III Cast
